THE FOREIGN APPOINTMENTS-NEW MEXICO-THE GARDNER CASE ETC. FROM THE REGULAR NEWSPAPER AGENT.

.Wishington, May 15, 1853.

The Cabinet were in session but a short time to day. Marcy states to his friends that his views as to foreign appointments were given some days since. The opinions I feel fully authorized to state that since last week the President has had he whole matter under his sole consideration. He feels no embarra-sment because he re-lies upon his own judgment, and is ready to bide the verdict of public opinion. The cast may not be given until the last of this week. The President is in excellent health and spirits, and shows no disposition to make hasty movements in reference either to appointments or the policy of the government.

Judge Ma on arrived this morning, and will immediately enter upon his duties as Commissioner of Patents.

The musical entertainments are necessary to be given in the President's grounds on Wedne day evenings, and at the Capited on Saturday instead of vice versa as hereto-fore. This arrangement is doubless to gratify Mrs. Pierce's desire to be quiet on the ere of the Sabbath. It is rumored that the solution trained has decided to support the position taken by Gov. Lane in regard to the Mecilla Valley.

The Republic says that on the 15th June a military expedition will leave Fort Leaven worth for New Mexico, under General Garland, who goes out to relieve Colonel Summer. Some 200 recruits will go out.

In the Gardner case this morning counsel for defendant submitted twenty four bills of exception, and counsel for the United States wishing time to examine them, the july were dismissed until to morrow.

Missage was received from the Mayor, relative to the appointment of persons as bell-ringers in the place of datalled policemen. To Committee on Fire Department.

To the Honorable Board of Alderman S.—Gentlemen—I return herewith a report and resolution in favor of paying Joseph Carlisle seventy, ning dollage for paper's before me, I find that the petitioner merely sets forth the fact of such camage having been done, and prays to be compensated therefor, while the committee, ecapitularing the facts set forth by the petitioner, recommend the payment of the above sum.

I do not find in this case anything to make it an exception to the principle which I have before feit called on to adopt in a similar application. The city is clearly not liable for injuries thus occasioned, the proper remedy being against the company which caused the damage; and as I cannot see any color of law or equity in the payment of such a claim by the city, I return the papers without my approval.

The Case of Jane Trainer, the Colored Child—Disappearance of her Father.

SUPERIOR COURT—IN CHAMBERS.

Before Hon, Judge Duer.

May 16—The People vs. Rose Prover.—The proceedings in this case were resumed at 3 o'clock P. M.

Mr. Culver said he had other witnesses to prove the character of Mrs. Porter, and the character of the house No. 101 Meteer street, where she now resides, and where she leeps this child, unless counsel on the other side would admit these allegations, to save time.

Mr. J. T. Brady said that when witnesses were produced he would not object to their being examined. Mr. Brady fisher to obtain in that espacity, the custody of his alleged infant child. To establish his right he must show that he is the father, that the child was born in lawful wellock and that the party in cut-ody of the child has no right to retain it. If the netitioner does not affirmatively establish his right conformably to these require ments the child must be remained to the custody of Mrs. Porter. The basis of the whole proceeding is taken away if the relator have no right. The child has free will, and is entitled to exercise it as to remaining with Mrs. Porter, and it expresses a thong desire to remain with her. There is nothing to show that its comfort or morality will be otherwise than much promoted by leaving it with Mrs. Porter; and even if Mrs. Porter was an improper per son to retain the child, that does not justify taking it from her by writ of habeas corput. He (Mr Brady) would prove that this lady has paid her passage to California for the 20th of this month, where she goes on a promise of marriage, and to which free State she intends to take this child, and where she could not, even if she were disposed, reduce it to slavery. The fact is there is an attachment between her and the child equal to that which would exist even if it were her own. It does not necessarily follow that when women stray from the paths of virtue that they loss all love or affection for every hu lend his aid to this respondent if it were to be so; yet he would not for the sairation of a whole race endanger the Union.

The Judge—So then, by the laws of Alabama, if those people continue their race it must be by the violation of moral and divine laws

Mr. Brady—So it appears. Mr. Brady concluded by calling on the Court, for its own satisfaction, to examine the child, in order that her feelings and wishes might be ascertained.

The Judge said the first question to be determined was if Trainer is the father of the child and entitled to her custody. The inclinations of the child would not after his rights; but if it becomes a question of discretion as to whose custody the Court shall order her then he would examine her. It is certainly an important consideration for the Court that if this child is taken back to Alabama to a slave mother she becomes bond again.

Mr. Brady then asked that Trainer be called to sign the petition which was now before the Court on his behalf.

He was called, but did not appear. It was understood that he had left the city.

The Judge said they could go on with the case, and if the petitioner did not appear he would dismiss it, and remand the child to the curtody of Mrs. Forter.

Mr. Brady, deposed:—I was born in Halifax, Canada; I began to reside in Mobile in 1842; I bought the mother of this child in February, 1843 or 1844; I gave $575 for her; I sold her in 1848 for $350, to Mr. Hall, a negro trader, of Alabama; from the time I bought her until I sold her she lived with me, except when I hired her out at her own suggestion, as she was in the habit of getting into fits of bad temper; I first saw Trainer a few days after bought her; that was after their alleged mirriage, he came to see the woman; he always saw her in the outhouse, such as are in the South; sometimes in the kitchen; he never was in my house to my knowledge.

To the Judge—I do not know whether he cohabited with her. Q.—Was he not her reputed husband? A.—He was a man that lived with her when he was not with others.

To the Judge-I do not know whether he cohabited with her. Q.—Was he not her reputed husband? A.—He was man that lived with her when he was not with others.

To Mr. Brady-I heard Trainer testify in this case; there is no truth in what he stated about my hou e; he never was in it; they (he and Emma) frequently quarrelled; she was jealous of Charles; I knew he coased to visit her. became he was living with another woman named Naballey; that woman and Emma (Trainer's al leged wife) had a quarrel about him; Nahalley struck Emma with a chair on the head, and I washed the blood off the wound with my own hands; I knew of his going after the girl in Indiana; I arrived in California on the 23d June, 1859; Heft the child (Jane) in the care of a free colored woman in Mobile; I returned from California on the 30th August, 1852, and went to Mobile in December, 1852; I found the child in the care of Mrs. Morris when I went back; she is a respectable white woman, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Caurch; I took the child to Cincinnati; I had a conversation with Emma before I left.

Mr. Culver objected to the evidence, as the woman was the witness' slave, and could do nothing of her own volition. [Testimony admitted]

Witness continued—She called on me, and asked me if I would sell the child to Charles; I said, "Emms, you know! like Jane, and I do not wish to part with her, but I will visit here again in April, and I will see." I did intend to return to Mobile, but when I went to Cincinnati I changed my mir d, and intend to go to California. I lived with Mrs. Garish, a respectable woman, 46 Cstherina street, Cincinnati. Fmma offered me $400 for her child, Emma is a very good and virtuous woman, but has a bad temper. I have paid my passage to California by the Illinois on the 20th, and also paid Jane's; I brought on another little girl, a white child, with me; I got her in California, from a drunken father, and I took her from filth and misery, and adopted her, at three years of age. I have also adopted a boy, who is at Mr

The Judge said that Mr. Brady had admitted that she had kept a house of ill fame, and there is no necessity of going over evidence of that now.

Witness continued—I had been to the house where I now reside, (101 Mercer street,) when I was in New York before.

To Mr. Brady—Since I have been there this time I have never been in the parlor: my object in going there was to take care of the child; I had a good deal of shopping, and I knew when I was out Mrs. Parker, who is a kind and wife.

To the Judge—Trainer and Emma were not called husband and wife.

Mr. Culver—What made her quarrel with that other woman?

Mr. Brady—If you know snything at all about women you ought to know that? (Laughter.)
Witzess continued—Smith, a cook, whom I had in California, called on me yesterday and said that Trainer had left the city, and that he said he would have no more bother about her, but would leave the child with me.

me.

The Judge said the case would stand adjourned to Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, on the understanding that if Trainer is not present to sign the petition the case would be dismissed.

Mr. Culver said that he had been informed by the woman with whom Trainer lodged that two colored men called on Trainer on Saturday, and told him that if he would go up to Mercer street, to Miss. Porter, she would give him the child. He left the house, and has not since been seen.

Mrs. Porter indignantly denied this insinuation, and give him the child. He left the house, and has not since been seen.

Mrs. Porter indignantly denied this insinuation, and said that she had not seen Trainer, but that Smith the cook, told her he had left New York.

Mr. Culver asked for a postponement to Wednesday, in order that he might have time to find where the petitioner was.

Mrs. Porter said she was going to California on Saturdess against our Attendance here. Take the child.

dess and the or her attendance here. Take the child, said she, weeping, but do not charge me with kidnapping. The case was then adjourned to Wednesday next, at three o'clock, the Judge intimating that if Trainer did not appear to sign the petition he would dismiss the Mr. Culver said if he ascertained that he had left the city, and had made the declaration that Mrs. Porter says, he, Mr. C., would abandon the case.

Herald Marine Correspondence.

On Saturday, the 30th of April last, the schr Howard, from New York for Texas, laden with an assorted cargo, struck on Tortugas Sheais. She remained ashore until 11 AM of the following day, when she was got off by the captein and crew without the aid of the wreckers. She proceeded immediately upon her voyage.

The brig John Dutton is now hove out, and rapidly repairing. Her cargo of empty barrels is in store. She will proceed to Matanzas from hence.

The schr Wye, Ayres, has been condemned, but an order of sale has not yet been issued. Her cargo of provisions is in store awaiting orders for reshipment.

The salvage on the ship Lucy has at length been ascertained. It amounts to $30,000, all of which has been paid to the wreckers. The ship has taken in new apars, and is being totally refitted. She will commence taking in cargo in a few days, and will probably be ready for sea about the last of August.

The engine from the wreck of the brig Cin brus has been pain to the wreckers. The ship has taken in new spars, and is being totally refitted. She will commence taking in cargo in a few days, and will probably be ready for sea about the lat of August.

The engine from the wreck of the brig Cimbrus has been saved by the wreckers, and has been put in running order by engineers, who pronounce it but little damaged. It has been appraised, but the amount allowed by the appraisers as its value has been objected to by Capt Welch, under writer's agent. It will therefore be sold at public auction, and will probably realize about one half the sum of the appraisement, thereby causing a loss to the insurers of about $2.000.

The new mail line between New Orleans and Key West, touching at all the intermediate ports in the State, has at length been re-established. The steamer James L Day has commenced running, and it is the intention of the company to place another boat on this line during the ensuing fall.

As the summer approaches, business grows dull, and most of our merchants are leaving for the North. The island still remains healthy. No further news.
